ROMANIAN FILM PROMOTION

Welcome word

The Romanian Films Catalogue is the latest work of the Romanian Film Promotion. It came up in order to promote last years' Romanian films. The catalogue contains a list of all the films that have had their Romanian premiere in the last two years.

It will be edited annually and will be constantly updated with new films premiered within the year before.

For complete info about Romanian cinema, please visit our website www.romfilmpromotion.ro, which contains an updated database of all the Romanian films.

The Nervous System

Sistemul nervos

An old woman, Madame Nica, owns a small house into the rural area and rents it from time to time to tourists. Her only pleasure is watching the evening news presented by a handsome young man (alias Mircea Radu). She has a crush on him and when she finds out that he might be having problems with his enemies, she takes an insane decision to go to Bucharest and try to protect her “little reindeer”. Once arrived in Bucharest she goes to stay at her daughter’s house. From there she tries to write him letters and fantasizes about meeting him face to face.

The Way I Spent the End of the World

Cum mi-am petrecut sfârșitul lumii

Bucharest 1989 – Last year of Ceausescu’s dictatorship. Eva, 17, lives with her parents and her 7 year-old brother Lalalilu. One day at school, Eva and her boyfriend Alex, accidentally break a bust of Ceausescu. They are forced to confess their crime before a disciplinary committee. Alex is protected by his father, a Party officer, but Eva is expelled from school and transferred to a reformatory establishment. There, she meets Andrei, a boy from a family of dissidents, and decides to escape Romania with him by crossing the Danube. Lalalilu is more and more convinced that Ceausescu is the main reason for Eva’s decision to leave. So, with his friends from school, he devises a plan to kill the dictator.

A fost sau n-a fost?

It is the 22nd of December. 16 years have passed since the revolution and in a small town Christmas is about to come. Pișcoci, an old retired man is preparing for another Christmas alone. Mănescu, the history teacher tries to keep up with his debts. Jderescu, the owner of a local television post, seems to not be so interested in the upcoming holidays. For him, the time to face history has come. Along with Mănescu and Pișcoci, he is trying to ask a question which for 16 years doesn't have an answer: "Was there or wasn't there a revolution in their town?"
